

With Reguard to RM-10869 This is not a bad Idea, Perhaps if I don't lobby for it the will act upon it. I dont like taking a step backards allowing all the current thinking this would also be a insult to the current Extras, Advanced, and perhaps to the novices.

I dont like it because its a step bacwards with the rest of the world. I think it will bring on a nother round of class of license in fighting.

So I may like it, but I can't support it due to the past infinging between the 7 classes of licensee, however we have 4 defacto licenes at present only three on paper, redcing infighting is the goal.
